Vince picked up a half-circle piece of glass; very friendly. He will do us well -- I like his attitude: He does not regard things that are difficult to do as "un-do-able," and that is excellent. He asked me if I would do a story on him and a friend of his -- both of them will have work in an art show at the University of Scranton. I said I would be delighted to do an article on them. From City Hall I went to the Post office and then returned here, making a stop at the News for a copy of this week's paper. The photo caption is by Phil for the Mason/John photograph on page 9 of the News. Une foi de retour à 8 H.L. I set about more organizing at the kitchen table -- PN work. This year I would like to complete: a volume of "Northeastern Pennsylvania Genealogical and Local History Reprints," volume two of "Preparatory Notes..."; a volume of Curtiss / Gardner papers, and a "Carbondale Calendar 1985," among other projects. For the first time in ten years I have some time to organize and I must -- and will -- take advantage of that time. All of it is made possible by my being able to live here at no rent. Thank you Rebecca Colville / thank you Ken & Jean & Chuck & Billie. What a blessing. I was prepared to leave the house at 6:30 to go to Andrews Banquet Hall to attend the LNA meeting when Rev. Pulli telephoned -- he wanted to talk about the Post office problem and also about the Drug and Alcohol program that he is working with with Chief Dottle & Joe Adley and others. Pulli is such an invaluable citizen -- it's wonderful. Esther got on the line. I gave them an update on my letter writing on behalf of the Post office substation that we were promised in Carbondale. We also agreed to meet in 301 on Tuesday the 17th at 4 PM to discuss the use of a room on the 3rd floor ^{of CCH + C} by the Drug and Alcohol program. As I spoke with the Pullins, Jeff Colville rang the back door ^{bell} and I went and let him in and went back to the Pulli phone conversation. At 7 PM or so I walked down to CCH + C
